Vision

.
The Ohio Digital Learning School will engage students to become their own advocates in education through high expectations and goal setting.  Individual self-awareness and advocacy will result in increased success in college and career attainment.